Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Students in colleges and universities are considered adults, with privacy and confidentiality protection. College staff cannot talk with parents or guardians about a student's academic activities. Any student over 18 years old may sign the "FERPA" or Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act, if they so choose, granting permission to parents or named others to have such discussions with College staff.

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) (20 U.S.C. § 1232g; 34 CFR Part 99) is a Federal law that protects the privacy of student education records. The law applies to all schools that receive funds under an applicable program of the U.S. Department of Education.

Generally, schools must have written permission from the student in order to release any information from a student's education record.

We do not share your personal data with any entity outside of Menlo. We do not and will never sell, rent, or share your name, mailing address, email address or any other data that can personally identify you in any way to any outside group.

All questions about FERPA or requests for student information should be directed to:

Office of the Registrar

Phone: (650) 543-3737

Fax: (650) 543-4103

Email: Registrar@menlo.edu

For more information about FERPA, visit the U.S. Department of Education's website.
