STUDENT HANDBOOK
This Handbook is not a contract between a student (or applicant) and Menlo College (“Menlo” or “College”). It represents information, policies, and guidelines which Menlo may change at any time before or after any student’s registration, with or without notice. The Handbook is intended to be utilized in conjunction with the Menlo College Catalog, as well as Menlo’s Residence Hall and Dining Services License Agreement. The Student Handbook may also be accessed electronically through the Menlo College website, which contains the most up-to-date version of the Student Handbook and supersedes all other versions.

MENLO COLLEGE
Menlo College is an independent, coeducational institution of higher learning. Menlo College is accredited by:

CORE VALUES
Representing the core values that inform our mission statement, at Menlo College, we:
- Value diverse ideas and celebrate our differences
- Treat all people with fairness and equity
- Develop the full potential in each person
- Support a range of teaching and learning styles
• Continually improve the educational process
• Consider one’s responsibilities to others
• Act with integrity

LEARNING GOALS
Menlo College has long emphasized integrated residential learning and co-curricular programs that complement traditional educational activities. In our community, learning activities enrich the living environment, and campus activities contribute to students’ learning and development. Integrating academics, student activities, residential life, and athletic experiences at Menlo have three primary goals:

• Enriching and improving student learning
• Integrating curricular and co-curricular learning
• Enhancing the intellectual climate across the campus

Menlo’s Service Learning program (SERV) provides students with opportunities to extend their learning to practical settings in the local community. SERV provides experience in such areas as communication skills, diversity issues, ethical decision-making, and employment marketability. Each program challenges students to think critically, act responsibly, and reflect on the meaning and impact of their activities.

1.0 MENLO STUDENT CODE OF CONDUCT
As a student at Menlo College you have chosen to become a member of an exceptional community. Menlo students, faculty, and staff represent different races, religions, national origins, physical abilities, sexual orientations, interests, learning styles, and other individual characteristics. At Menlo, you'll find that our differences can become the foundation for meaningful relationships and experiences. Exposure to diverse backgrounds, and working through challenges that arise from differences can prepare you for meeting and resolving life's future challenges.

We encourage you to be an involved and responsible member of our community. You should take an active role to shaping your college experience and at the same time, positively contribute to the experiences of others.

By accepting admission to the College, students are expected to abide by the general conditions for community living described in this section, and the specific rules and regulations that support these conditions. In addition, students must respect local and national laws. College students are expected to:
• Abide by the Honor Code (defined in 2.0), which facilitates the appropriate expression of individual and institutional freedom
• Acknowledge and respect the rights and responsibilities of all members of the College community and conduct themselves accordingly
• Conduct themselves in a manner that does not disrupt the normal processes of teaching, learning, research, or the normal operation and administration of Menlo College

The purpose of the Menlo College Student Code of Conduct (“Code of Conduct”) and its procedures is to define the parameters within which students study, socialize, work, develop, grow, and exercise academic rights and freedoms within the Menlo College community. It is the College’s purpose to assist students in developing a personal set of values and ethics, to assist students in managing emotions, to guide students in making decisions and following through on commitments, and to help students accept the consequences of personal actions and decisions.

Since a student’s conduct also reflects on the reputation of the College, the College reserves the right to exercise disciplinary measures, including dismissal for misconduct that takes place either on or off campus. Any violation of this Code of Conduct will subject a student to appropriate disciplinary action, even if such violation is not specifically mentioned herein.

Please be aware that changes to the Code of Conduct may happen during the year. If changes occur, students will be given updated information regarding those changes. It is the responsibility of each student to know and to understand the Code of Conduct. Students are advised to read the Code of Conduct each year in order to be aware of changes that may have occurred. Ignorance of policies and procedures is not a valid excuse for violating the Code of Conduct or failure to follow up according to established procedures.

Code of Conduct
Students and other members of the College community have a responsibility to protect and maintain an academic climate in which the freedom to learn can be enjoyed. Accordingly, certain basic rules and policies have been developed to govern conduct.

Students are responsible for knowing and abiding by all College policies and rules including, but not limited to, the Code of Conduct and the Residence Hall and Dining Services License Agreement, which can be found at the following link. http://www.menlo.edu/wp-content/uploads/2015/03/residence-hall-license-agreement.pdf.

Note that violations of the Residence Hall and Dining Services License Agreement will result in disciplinary action. Violations of any of the following College policies set forth in this Handbook shall also constitute violations of the student Code of Conduct. Specifically:

1.1 The intimidation, harassment, verbal or physical abuse of any individual is prohibited. Physical violence toward another person or group is strictly prohibited. Interference with the freedom of another person to move about in a lawful manner is strictly prohibited.
1.2 Individual or group conduct of a nature that infringes upon the rights and privileges of others, results in the destruction of property, or is otherwise prejudicial to the maintenance of order is prohibited.

1.3 Display, possession or use of any weapons including but not limited to firearms, rifles, shotguns, pistols, BB guns, pellet guns, swords, knives, tasers, nunchuks, cross bows, brass knuckles, blackjacks, sling shots, martial arts weapons or other weapons as defined in Penal Code Section 12020(a)(1).

1.5 There are two designated smoking areas on campus where tobacco may be used. Tobacco use in any form, including e-cigarettes and vaping, is completely banned outside of the two designated areas. Anyone smoking outside of the two designated areas will be fined a minimum of $50.00 per incident. Any who improperly disposes of tobacco (e.g., cigarette or cigar butts) will be fined a minimum of $25.00 per incident.

1.6 Vandalism or theft of College property or the property of another person and/or possession of stolen property.

1.7 Excessive noise is prohibited (Menlo College is subject to the city of Atherton noise ordinance).

1.9 Lewd or indecent conduct on College property or at a college sponsored event/activity.

1.12 Misuse of the disciplinary procedures including: failure to respond to the request for an interview by the conduct officer during the investigation of a violation, knowingly falsifying or misrepresenting information before a hearing body, disruption or interference with the orderly conduct of a hearing; knowingly making a false statement, attempting to influence the impartiality of a member of a hearing body prior to and/or during the course of a hearing, harassment and/or intimidation of a member of a hearing body or of a witness, and influencing or attempting to influence another person to present false information or a false complaint.

1.13 Public nudity (e.g., mooning, streaking).

1.17 Hindering a College official. College officials include but are not limited to Campus Security, faculty/staff, custodial/maintenance workers, and Resident Assistants. Refusal to cooperate with the request of a College official will result in disciplinary action. Specific expectations include:

a. Upon request, an individual (student or guest) must produce photo identification for examination by a College official. Students are required to carry their Menlo ID Cards with them at all times.

b. Providing false information, withholding information, or providing misleading information to a College official is prohibited.

c. Impersonating a College official is prohibited.

d. Acting on behalf of another person, group, or the College without authorization or prior consent is prohibited.

e. Not responding to written correspondence or email from a College official is prohibited.

f. Students must comply with the instructions of a College official at all times.

Note: In addition to constituting a violation of the College’s Code of Conduct and resulting in student discipline, students who violate any of these rules may also be violating federal and/or state laws, and may be subject to criminal prosecution.

2.0 HONOR CODE
The Honor Code is the College's statement on academic integrity. It articulates College expectations of students and faculty in establishing and maintaining the highest standards in academic work. All alleged violations of the Honor Code will be handled by the Office of Academic Affairs in consultation with the Dean of Student Affairs Office.

3.0 ALCOHOL POLICY
Menlo College is committed to the education, safety, and health of all members of the campus community. The College is committed to achieving a drug-free and alcohol-responsible environment for all students in compliance with requirements of the federal Drug-Free Schools and Communities Act Amendments of 1989.

Menlo College students are expected to comply with federal, state and local laws that govern the use of alcohol and illicit drugs. These laws prohibit the unlawful use, possession, sale, or distribution of alcohol, narcotics or other dangerous or illegal drugs, as defined by California statutes, on College property or at any function sponsored by the College.

Students are expected to conduct themselves as responsible citizens and in a manner compatible with the College function as an educational institution. The College does not condone underage drinking and considers intoxication, disorderliness or offensive behavior deriving from the use of alcoholic beverages to be unacceptable, regardless of the person’s age, or residential status (i.e., on-campus or off-campus). Students, faculty and staff of Menlo College are expected to abide by all California laws regulating the possession use and furnishing of alcoholic beverages outlined below. (See CALIFORNIA STATE LAWS ON ALCOHOL.) It is the responsibility of faculty, staff and students to report violations of this policy to the Office of Student Affairs at (650) 543-3779.
Health Issues Associated with Alcohol Use

Alcohol is a drug and consumption causes a number of marked changes in behavior. Even low doses significantly impair the judgment and coordination required to drive a car safely, increasing the likelihood that the driver will be involved in an accident. Low to moderate doses of alcohol also increase the incidence of a variety of aggressive acts and lead to a loss of inhibition.

- Moderate to high doses of alcohol cause marked impairments in higher order mental functions, severely altering a person’s ability to learn and remember information.
- Very high doses cause respiratory depression and death. If combined with other central nervous system depressants, much lower doses of alcohol will produce the effects just described.
- Repeated use of alcohol can lead to dependence. Sudden cessation of alcohol intake is likely to produce withdrawal symptoms including severe anxiety, tremors, hallucinations, and convulsions. Alcohol withdrawal can be life threatening.
- Long-term consumption of large quantities of alcohol can also lead to permanent damage to vital organs such as the brain and the liver.
- Mothers who drink alcohol during pregnancy may give birth to infants with Fetal Alcohol Syndrome. These infants have irreversible physical abnormalities and mental retardation. In addition, research indicates that children of alcoholic parents are at greater risk of becoming alcoholic.

Student organizations wishing to sponsor a function at which alcohol will be served must follow all rules and regulations issued by the Office of Student Affairs covering private Menlo College events. Student violations of the alcohol policy will be referred to the Office of Student Affairs in accordance with the Student Code of Conduct. Other violations of the alcohol policy will be referred to the appropriate administrative office. Events hosted by Menlo College will only serve non-alcohol beverages, beer and/or wine. Hard liquor is not allowed at any Menlo College student affiliated event.

Local, state, and federal laws pertaining to the possession and use of alcoholic beverages are enforced on the College campus. Use and/or possession of alcoholic beverages in violation of state law and/or Menlo College policy will result in a violation of the code of conduct and/or possible state law enforcement involvement.
• The possession and consumption of alcoholic beverages on the Menlo campus is prohibited by those below the legal drinking age (21).
• Persons 21 years of age and older may not consume alcohol in the presence of a person under 21 in the residence halls.
• Common source containers such as kegs, pony kegs, party balls, etc., are prohibited on campus without prior approval from the Office Student Affairs.
• The College strictly prohibits being under the influence of alcohol, prescribed medication, or any other substance which negatively affects the welfare of the student and/or the College community.
• Staff members (including student staff) are not allowed to consume alcohol or be under the influence prior to or during a school function in which they are scheduled to work. Student staff members may drink alcohol (aligned with our campus alcohol policy) after they have completed any work shift at a campus event.

Regardless of age, excessive and inappropriate use of alcoholic beverage is strictly prohibited. Organizing or participating in drinking games and rapid consumption techniques and devices (funnels, beer bongs, shot glasses, beer pong tables, bars, bar signs, etc.) by their nature promote abusive consumption of alcohol and thus violate the alcohol policy. Any person under 21 years of age who is present where drinking games take place on campus will be presumed to have consumed alcohol, as it is difficult to determine who was drinking alcohol and who was not.

Persons under 21 years of age may not be present in a residence hall room where alcohol is being used or present. Students hosting guests (including fellow Menlo students and non-Menlo students) are responsible for their guests’ adherence to this policy. Any person under the age of 21 present in a residence hall room where alcohol is being consumed will be presumed to have consumed alcohol, as it is difficult to determine who was drinking alcohol and who was not.

Under strict guidelines, the serving and consumption of alcohol on the Menlo College campus is allowed for approved student sponsored events attended by an approved chaperone (faculty or staff member approved by Student Affairs). Such functions are recognized as private Menlo College events. Consumption of alcohol at such events is allowed for persons 21 years of age and older. Failure to abide by the rules and regulations issued by the Office of Student Affairs covering private Menlo College events is a violation of the code of conduct.

Alcohol is not permitted in common areas (any sidewalk, outdoor space, bathroom, hallway, lobby, foyer, resident room with the door open, etc.) of a residence hall or any other area on the Menlo College campus.

Possession of bulk alcoholic beverages (defined as amounts for storage or use that is excessive for responsible use) is prohibited. “Personal use” allows for one resident (at least 21 years of age) to possess one of the following: amounts of alcohol equal to one six pack of beer, one bottle of wine, or 750 mL of hard liquor.
General Health Risks
Substance abuse can cause extremely serious health and behavioral problems, including both short and long-term effects upon the body and mind. The physiological and psychological responses differ according to the individual engaging in the abuse and the chemical(s) ingested. Although chronic health problems are associated with long-term substance abuse, acute and traumatic reactions can also occur from one-time and moderate use.

Health risks associated with substance abuse include heart attack, stroke, and sudden death, which, in the case of drugs such as but not limited to cocaine, can be triggered by first-time use. Long-lasting health effects of alcohol and other drugs may include disruption of normal heart rhythm, high blood pressure, leaks of blood vessels in the brain, bleeding, destruction of brain cells and permanent memory loss, infertility, impotency, immune system impairment, kidney failure, cirrhosis of the liver, and pulmonary (lung) damage.

Human Immunodeficiency Virus (HIV, which can lead to AIDS), sexually transmitted diseases, acquaintance rape, unwanted pregnancies, injuries, accidents, and violence are also highly correlated with alcohol and other drug use.

Drug use during pregnancy may result in miscarriage, fetal damage, and birth defects causing hyperactivity, neurological abnormalities, developmental difficulties, and infant death. In addition, substance abuse impairs learning ability and performance.

California State Laws on Alcohol
Students, faculty, and staff of Menlo College are expected to know and abide by California state law regulating possession, furnishing, and consumption of alcoholic beverages. California law provides that:

- A person who sells, furnishes, or gives an alcoholic beverage to a person under the age of 21, or who causes an alcoholic beverage to be sold, furnished, or given to a person under the age of 21, is guilty of a misdemeanor (Business and Professions Code, Section 25658).
- A person who sells, furnishes, or gives an alcoholic beverage to any person under the age of 18, or who causes an alcoholic beverage to be sold, furnished, or given to a person under the age of 18, may be guilty of the misdemeanor of contributing to the delinquency of a minor, which is punishable by a fine of up to $2,500 and a one-year jail term (Penal Code, Section 272).
- A person under the age of 21 who has an alcoholic beverage in his possession on a street or highway, in a public place, or in any place open to the public is guilty of a misdemeanor (Business and Professions Code, Section 2562).
- A person who is found in any public place under the influence of intoxicating liquor, drug, and/ or a controlled substance, may be guilty of a misdemeanor (California Penal Code, Section 647 (f)).
• It is unlawful for any person to drink while driving, to have an open container of alcohol in a moving vehicle (California Vehicle Code Section 23222(a), or to drive under the influence of alcohol; intoxication is presumed at blood alcohol levels of 0.08% or higher, and may be found with blood alcohol levels from 0.05% to 0.08% (California Vehicle Code Section 23152(b)).

• It is unlawful for any person on probation for a conviction for driving while under the influence of alcohol, to have a blood alcohol level of 0.01% or greater (California Vehicle Code Section 23154(a).

• Some drivers under 21 years of age who are suspected of having a blood alcohol content of .01 percent or more and fail or refuse to take an alcohol-screening test may have their license suspended for three years; second offenses are punishable by fines of up to $1,000, imprisonment up to one year, driver's license suspension up to 18 months, and/or a required alcohol/drug program of up to 30 months.

• Driving privileges are suspended for six months for refusing to submit to a blood alcohol content test, for two years if there is a prior offense within seven years, and for three years with three or more offenses within seven years.

Menlo College recognizes that alcohol and other drug dependencies are treatable conditions. Students are encouraged to seek assistance by calling the Office of Student Affairs at (650) 543-3779 for information on alcohol and other drug treatment programs. Informational pamphlets are also available in the residence halls, and the Office of Student Affairs.

4.0 DRUG POLICY
In compliance with the Drug Free Schools and Communities Act of 1989, it is the policy of Menlo College to provide a drug free workplace and campus. The unlawful manufacture, possession, distribution and/or use of controlled substances, drugs, intoxicants, or stimulants is prohibited in/on Menlo College owned or controlled property. The College does not allow students to use, possess, transport or sell marijuana or paraphernalia on campus.

Violations of this policy will result in disciplinary sanctions up to and including expulsion. Violations may also be referred to the proper authority for prosecution. Menlo College reserves the right to enter student rooms under any circumstance in order to assist local authorities to enforce civil statutes. Detection of drug paraphernalia, marijuana odor, or a reasonable suspicion of drug use will subject a student to disciplinary action.

4.1 The manufacture, possession, sale, distribution, exchange and/or consumption of controlled substances, illegal drugs, intoxicants and stimulants is strictly prohibited on the Menlo College campus.

4.2 It is prohibited for students under the influence of narcotics or dangerous drugs. The person for whom prescription drugs are prescribed must use them appropriately. Illegal substances (including marijuana) will be confiscated by a College official and/or turned over to the Atherton Police Department.

4.3 Confiscated items will not be returned to students. All paraphernalia, including, but not limited to: bongs, pipes, roach clips, rolling papers, etc., are prohibited. Violators are subject to Housing Contract termination and removal from College housing. College and/or criminal charges may be filed.

4.4 Medicinal marijuana is not allowed on the Menlo College campus and is treated in the same class as an illegal drug. (See Medical Marijuana Policy.) Medical marijuana card carriers may not have marijuana on the Menlo College campus.

Health Issues Associated with Drug Use

Drug abuse refers to the use of natural and/or synthetic chemical substances for non-medical reasons. Drug abuse can affect a person’s physical and emotional health and social life. Following are some commonly abused drugs with possible health effects.

Stimulants: These include amphetamines and cocaine that stimulate the central and peripheral nervous system and the cardiovascular system, resulting in decreased fatigue, interference with sleep patterns and decreased appetite. Health risks include drug-induced psychiatric disturbances, strokes, and destruction of nasal tissue, bronchitis, skin ulcers, increased heart rate, and increased heart rate to cardiac fibrillation, heart attack and death.

Depressants: These include barbiturates, tranquilizers and methaqualone (“soapers”). Possible effects include disorientation and loss of coordination. An overdose can cause coma or death. Depressants taken in combination with alcohol are especially dangerous.

Hallucinogens: These include lysergic acid diethylamide (LSD, aka “acid”). Health risks include drug-induced hallucinations and other psychiatric disturbances. Birth defects in user’s children could also result. Overdose can result in psychosis episodes and even death.

Cannabis: These include marijuana and hashish. Chronic use can result in respiratory difficulties, bronchitis, impairment of heart contraction, impairment of fertility, increased rate of chromosomes breakage and acute memory impairment. Episodic use can result in panic reactions. As with alcohol, impaired perceptions and motor functions, and inability to carry out multi-step tasks, contribute to motor vehicle crashes and other trauma.

Narcotics: These include heroin, morphine, codeine and opium. Risks include infection, malnutrition, hepatitis and respiratory depression. Overdose can result in coma and possible death.

Inhalants: These include aerosol products, lighter fluid and paint thinner. Associated health risks include paralysis; damage to lungs, brain, liver and bone marrow; hallucinations; convulsions; coma; and death.
State and Local Sanctions for Drugs

Students, faculty, and staff of Menlo College are expected to know and abide by California state law regulating possession, furnishing and consumption of drugs. California law provides that:

a. Under California law, first offenses involving the sale or possession for sale of amphetamines, barbiturates, codeine, cocaine, Demerol, heroin, LSD, mescaline, methadone, methamphetamine, morphine, PCP, peyote, Quaaludes, Psilocybin and marijuana are felonies carrying prison terms of seven years or more.

b. Manufacture of illegal drugs may result in prison terms of 20 years or more.

c. Penalties are more severe for offenses involving the manufacture or distribution of illegal drugs by convicted felons and for distribution within 1,000 feet of a school or college/university, within 100 feet of a recreational facility, to anyone in prison or jail, to anyone under 18 by anyone over 18, or to a pregnant woman.

d. Personal property may be seized if it contains drugs or was used in a drug transaction.

Medicinal Marijuana

Menlo College policy does not allow students to use, possess, transport or sell marijuana or paraphernalia in or on its facilities or property. This includes students who qualify under California Proposition 215 to use marijuana for medicinal purposes. Students who are determined to be in possession of or using marijuana and/or paraphernalia under the medicinal premise are in violation of the Code of Conduct.

Consequences of Violations

As an educational institution, Menlo College approaches student conduct issues from a perspective that places greater emphasis on individual responsibility and development than on regulatory measures. However, when violations of law or policy come to the attention of campus officials, sanctions will be imposed, calibrated to the severity of the misconduct. Students who have failed to comply with federal, state, and local laws, and campus regulations governing the use of alcohol and illicit drugs will be subject to disciplinary action, including the possibility of suspension or expulsion, and may be denied future admission. Other sanctions may include one or more of the following: warning, probation, restitution, referral to counseling, referral for alcohol/drug evaluation, and removal from campus housing. Questions about this policy may be directed to the Office of Student Affairs at (650) 543-3779.

Informational pamphlets are also available in the residence halls, and the Office of Student Affairs.
5.0 CONDUCT PROCESS
Menlo College views the conduct and disciplinary proceedings as a part of the educative process. The goal is to assist the students in personal development as well as to protect the academic community as a whole from individuals who jeopardize an atmosphere conducive to mutual respect and learning. Students may learn through the disciplinary proceedings how their behavior impedes the educational process.

These standards and procedures have been established by the College to protect its educational purpose, to provide for the orderly conduct of its activities, to protect the victims of crime, and to safeguard the interests of the College community. These disciplinary procedures used by the College are considered part of its educational process, and reflect the philosophy of community education and evaluation. Hearings and appeals conducted as a part of this process are not courts of law and they are not subject to many of the rules of civil or criminal hearings. Because some of the violations of these standards are also violations of law, students may be accountable to both civil and/or criminal authorities and to the College for their actions. Disciplinary action at the College will normally proceed not withstanding any civil or criminal proceeding.

Definition of Terms:
Director of Residential Life and Community Standards (or designee assigned by Dean of Student Affairs): The administrator charged with coordinating and overseeing all matters of conduct. The Director determines which conduct process a student will be referred to (administrative hearing; board hearing; or other means of address, e.g., mediation). The Director also serves as the advisor to the campus Conduct Board, and is the recorder. The Director does not participate in making decisions of the board but serves as a reference only.

Administrative Reviewer: A staff or faculty member of the College entrusted with the responsibility of hearing student conduct cases. A hearing officer will normally be the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards, but alternatively, another staff or faculty member may be designated by the Dean of Student Affairs to serve as a Hearing Officer.

Administrative Review: A meeting in which a student will meet one-on-one with a Hearing Officer. A majority of conduct cases are heard and resolved in this manner.

Conduct Board Hearing: A conduct hearing in which a student will meet with three or five staff/faculty members and a student selected by the Administrative Reviewer in consultation with the Dean of Student Affairs.

The following is a list of specific rights guaranteed a student during the conduct process:

Student Rights and Basis for Determining Responsibility
The student has the right to be presumed not in violation until determined to be in violation, either by:

- An admission of responsibility by the student, or
A Hearing Officer/Conduct Board arrives at a determination that the student is responsible for the violation, based on the preponderance of the evidence (i.e., what most likely happened based on information discovered in the investigation).

If, in the opinion of the Dean of Student Affairs, or his/her designee, the presence of the student at the College would pose an immediate or continuing danger to persons or property or an ongoing threat of disruption to the academic process and environment, the student may be immediately suspended from all College activities pending his/her hearing before a Hearing Officer or Conduct Board. This temporary suspension may include, but is not limited to academic participation and removal from College property (including residence halls). An interim suspension may also be applied to a student who has been charged with a felony.

The student has the right to be given written notice of alleged violations.

The student has the right to plead not responsible and have one of the following:

- Administrative review
- A hearing before a Conduct Board

The Director of Residential Life and Community Standards (or appointed designee) and/or the Dean of Student Affairs will determine which conduct proceeding is appropriate to adjudicate each case.

The right to bring material witnesses and/or a non-attorney advisor to the hearing. The presence of a non-attorney advisor in the hearing is allowed as long as the student notifies the Director or designee 24 hours in advance; the advisor's name must be provided at the time notice is provided. The non-attorney advisor cannot speak for the accused student; s/he can only be present to support the student.

The right, upon timely request before the hearing, of reasonable access to necessary documents, statements, or printed evidence of which the College has possession as deemed appropriate by the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee.

Complaint and Initial Investigation

Any member of the College community may report a violation of College policy or regulation if that member observes the violation or had personal knowledge of it. Students, staff members, and other members of the community who wish to file a report concerning a student's behavior may do so through the Menlo College Report a Student Concern link. Infractions involving academic dishonesty will be referred to the proper academic authority for action.

The Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee will first review all reports. If there is sufficient evidence that a College policy or the Code of Conduct has possibly been violated, the issue will be resolved as dictated by the Conduct Process.
Violation of College Policy or Code of Conduct
A student alleged to be in violation of a College policy or the Code of Conduct will be notified by the Office of Student Affairs of the alleged misconduct and the procedure for scheduling a hearing with the appropriate administrator or hearing body. In most cases, the student will have an administrative review to determine if a violation occurred, and the appropriate penalty.

Notice and Scheduling of the Administrative Review/ Hearing
Any student facing conduct proceedings has a right to appropriate notice of alleged violations.

Notice of alleged violations will be sent within three working days from the receipt of the incident report, in the form of a letter to the student’s Menlo email address and campus Post Office box for on-campus students, and mailing address on record for off-campus students, as well as to their Menlo email address. The letter will state the specific violation(s), whether the matter will be handled by Administrative Review or Conduct Board Hearing, and the Hearing Officer of record for the proceeding.

A student who has been accused of a violation must schedule the Administrative Review or the Conduct Board Hearing with the appropriate Hearing Officer within three working days from the day of notification of the alleged violations. Upon written request before the deadline passes, an extension of this deadline may be granted for good and sufficient cause by the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee. If the student should fail to meet at the scheduled time, or does not respond back within three working days of the written request, the student will also be charged with an additional violation for failure to comply. The Administrative Reviewer will also impose sanction(s) without the statement of the student who is accused.

The Administrator Reviewer may determine that a hearing be conducted with a third party present. This individual will not participate in the process, but will serve to witness the discussion and the process.

Hearings are arranged to accommodate student and committee member schedules. If, after all attempts to convene a Conduct Board appropriate to the charges is made and a board cannot be brought together, the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee can choose to refer the case to an administrative hearing. A delay in scheduling a hearing does not absolve a student of the charges against him/her.

The Hearing Process
Formal rules of evidence shall not be applicable either at the Administrative Review or the Conduct Board Hearing. Evidence may be excluded if, in the Hearing Officer’s sole judgment, it is immaterial, irrelevant, or unduly repetitious. Students shall be allowed to call witnesses on their behalf.

Both Administrative Review and Conduct Board Hearings shall be conducted in private in order to protect the confidential nature of the proceedings.
All documentation regarding the incident, the proceedings, and the outcome will be kept in the student's file in the Student Affairs Office. These documents will be kept on file for up to five years after a student's departure from the campus community. In more serious offenses and in all Conduct Board hearings, proceedings will be tape recorded to provide objective evidence of the proceedings.

The Decision
In most circumstances, students will be notified of the final decision and the sanctions imposed, if any, and of the right to appeal within five working days after the hearing date. In incidents where several students are involved, the final decision and the sanctions imposed, if any, may be rendered up to five working days from the date of the last hearing. This will include information regarding the charges, which student is being charged, and the hearing body’s decision as to whether or not the student is being held accountable for the violation(s) as well as appropriate sanction(s). If for some reason the decision letter is delayed (for example, when a large number of students are involved in the incident), a letter or other form of communication (e.g., email, text message, or phone call) will be sent to the student(s) indicating the reason for the delay in the outcome and an estimated time frame in which the final decision will be rendered.

Appeals
In cases involving violations of College policy or the Code of Conduct, the student will have five working days after the decision is rendered in which to file a written appeal with the Dean of Student Affairs. All appeals must be submitted online through the Menlo College Appeal Request Form. Appeals will only be considered if new, factual information about the case is presented or if the student believes the conduct process was not followed as per the Student Handbook.

Upon written request before the deadline passes, extensions to the deadline for filing appeal requests may be granted for good and sufficient reason by the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee. In the event that a conflict of interest may arise in the appeals process, the Director will make adjustments as necessary to ensure that the student receives appropriate due process consideration. This may include presenting the appeal to a member or group of members of the faculty, staff, or administration.

The decision of the Dean of Student Affairs in appeals will be final and binding on all concerned.

Use of the Conduct Board
The Conduct Board will have jurisdiction and authority to adjudicate cases deemed appropriate by the Director which involve alleged violation of the Student Code of Conduct. Generally, these will be more serious allegations, or the involvement of multiple students.

- The Conduct Board will consist of three or five voting members. There will be a minimum of one faculty/professional staff member and one student representative.
- Three members of the Conduct Review Board will constitute a quorum. There must be at least one student present.
- Conduct Board hearings are not typically scheduled during summer or vacation periods, or during the week immediately preceding or following an academic session unless circumstances allow for or may require the convening of a Board.
• Members of the Conduct Board may know students accused of violations, witnesses, or victims. However, such familiarity shall not constitute grounds for disqualification of a member of the Conduct Board, unless a member of the Conduct Board determines this familiarity interferes with his or her ability to judge the matter fairly.

• Conduct Board members are expected to exercise fairness and confidentiality throughout the Conduct process. Failure to uphold these expectations will result in removal, at the discretion of the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or his/her designee. Appeals can be made to the Dean of Student Affairs.

Multiple Violations
In cases of multiple violations, each infraction is to be taken into account and the sanction adjusted upward accordingly. Adjustment increments shall reflect the minimum baseline sanction of each violation. Sanctions may also be adjusted on the basis of extenuating circumstances or the degree of involvement. Sanctions that deviate from the baseline must be strongly supported by the evidence and should be documented in the follow-up letter.

Sanctions
Fairness is an important goal for student discipline system. Because each matter involves specific and unique facts and circumstances, the imposition of sanctions involves the sound discretion of the Hearing Officer, taking into consideration the seriousness of the conduct involved, the consequences of that conduct, whether the student has had prior conduct issues, and the attitude of the student(s) involved in the incident.

If it is determined that a violation of College policy or the Code of Conduct occurred, one or more sanctions will be issued against the student. The severity of the sanction should fit the severity of the infraction in the judgment of the College.

Once a student has received a sanction, further violations will always result in a more severe sanction, or an extension of the current sanction.

The following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to have violated the Student Code of Conduct or Menlo College policies:

• No Further Action: In cases where the student is found responsible for the violation(s), and where the discussion with the administrative officer or conduct board has been sufficient, further action may not be deemed necessary. Nonetheless, the violation will be noted in the student’s record in the Student Affairs Office.

• Warning: In instances of minor violations, the student may be warned in writing of the possible consequences of continuing such behavior. Additional conditions may be applied as appropriate.

• Community Service: Community service hours assigned as a part of the judicial process may not be applied towards the community service graduation requirement.

• Probation: A student placed on probation is not in good standing with the College for a specified period of time, and restrictions may be placed on his or her actions. The probation usually extends over a stated period during which it is clearly understood that the student is subject to further disciplinary action, which may include removal from the residence halls and/or college suspension or dismissal, if he or she violates the terms of the probation or in any way fails to conduct himself/herself as a responsible member of the community. In cases involving probation, a behavioral contract will usually be required, indicating the conditions of probation, the specific time period, the nature of any suspended privileges, and when the student may gain the privilege(s), if at all.

- Loss of Privileges: Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.
- Fines: Monetary fines appropriate to the violation.
- Restitution: Monetary compensation to the victim(s) for loss, damage, or injury.
- Educational Sanctions: Work assignments, service to the College, developing/implementing programs, writing papers, creating flyers/brochures, or other related educational assignments (such assignments must have the prior approval of the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or his/her designee).
- Residence Hall Relocation: Mandatory relocation of resident student to a different room or different residence hall. The student is responsible for any charges involved in changing rooms (e.g., from a double room to a single room).
- Residence Hall Suspension: Separation of a residential or non-residential student from the residence halls for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to apply to return. Conditions for readmission may or may not be specified. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls with no refund of room and board fees. The student will be excluded from the residence halls area (defined as the residential buildings and the adjacent outside areas) and the dining hall. Violation of the conditions of residence hall suspension may be cause for further disciplinary action in the form of possible suspension or expulsion from the College.
- Expulsion from Residence Hall: Permanent separation of a student from the residence halls. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls with no refund of room and board fees. The student will be excluded from the residence halls area (defined as the residential buildings and the adjacent outside areas) and the dining hall. Violation of the conditions of residence halls expulsion may be cause for further disciplinary action in the form of possible suspension or expulsion from the College.
- Permanent separation of the student from the College campus: A student may be banned from campus, with the exception of attending classes or academic functions (e.g., library use and academic speaker programs).
- Counseling or Rehabilitation.
- College Suspension: Enforced separation of the student from the institution. Suspension may extend for a semester, for a specified period, until a specifically designated date, or until a stated condition is met. During the period of suspension, the student will be excluded from all classes, seminars, and programs; will not be allowed to participate in College-sponsored events or activities on or off campus; and will not be allowed on College premises. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls with no refund of room and board fees. Furthermore, there will be no refund on tuition or any other fee associated with attendance at the College. Violation of the conditions of suspension, College policies, or regulations during the period of suspension may be cause for further disciplinary action, usually in the form of expulsion from the College.

- College Expulsion (Involuntary Withdrawal): Permanent separation of the student from the College. The student will be excluded from all classes, seminars, and programs; will not be allowed to participate in any College-sponsored activities on or off campus; and will not be allowed on College premises. If the person lives in the residence halls, he or she will be required to move out of the residence halls with no refund of room and board fees. Furthermore, there will be no refund on tuition or any other fee associated with attendance at the College.

- Organizational Sanctions: Organizational sanctions are applicable to all residential and non-residential organizations, clubs, and similarly organized groups that are responsible for compliance with all College policies. Upon determination that the group has encouraged violations or did not take reasonable steps to prevent violations of College policies, the group may be subjected to permanent or temporary removal of recognition and funds.

- Loss of automobile privileges on campus.

Sanction Timelines
Sanctions are given for a specific period of time, measured in calendar weeks that begin the day the residence halls open for the fall semester and ending with the day the residence halls close for the spring semester. Depending on circumstance, sanction timelines and parameters may also include winter, spring, and summer breaks.

Restitution
The student will be notified concerning the sanction. Cases of vandalism, stolen property, or injury may require restitution.

Failure to Complete Assigned Sanctions
Should a student not complete assigned sanctions by the indicated deadlines, a hold will be placed on his/her student record which will prevent him/her from registering for the next semester, receive transcripts, or receive grades until the sanctions have been completed. In addition, the sanctions may be increased (including the levying of fines) due to failure to meet the original sanction(s).

Residence Hall Suspension
There are times when a student may be viewed by the College community as unsuitable for continued occupancy in campus housing. Recommendation for removal is to be made to the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee. Such action can independent or a part of the disciplinary process. Upon receiving such a recommendation, the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee shall send a letter to the student (using prescribed procedures) indicating that a recommendation for removal has been submitted and citing the grounds of the recommendation (alleged violations and past discipline history are grounds for removal). The letter is to include instructions on scheduling a discipline hearing. The student then has three working days after receipt of the letter to schedule and meet with the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee.
As a result of the discipline hearing, the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee may:

- Call upon certain individuals for questioning in order to clarify or gain more information before making a decision.
- Impose other appropriate discipline sanctions; or
- Follow through with the removal. If removal from housing is warranted, the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee will send a letter indicating when the student would be required to vacate the room. Should the student opt to file an appeal, the student may be required to move to another campus housing facility or move off-campus during the appeal process.
- The Dean of Student Affairs, or his/her designee, or the Conduct Review Board may recommend removal from campus housing as part of sanctions rendered through the disciplinary process. In these cases, students are expected to either abide by the sanction or file an appeal within three working days to the Office of Student Affairs.

Limitations placed on a student for removal from campus housing include restriction from the residence halls at any time for any reason, restriction from the grounds portion of campus extending from Howard and Michaels Halls to El Camino Hall, with the exception of the Admission and Administration Buildings for official purposes, and restriction from accessing the dining hall. If a student who has been removed from campus housing is found in or around the residence halls, s/he may face additional Code of Conduct violations in addition to possible arrest for trespassing. No refunds of room and board fees will be granted to a student who is required to move out of the residence halls due to disciplinary reasons. Additional limitations may be placed on a student depending on the degree of severity of the incident.

Guidelines for College Suspension or Expulsion

When the investigation and hearing conducted by the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards, or designee, or the Conduct Review Board determines that the appropriate sanction is College suspension or expulsion, a full report, including past discipline record and all facts pertinent to the incident at hand will be forwarded, with a statement recommending the sanction, to the Provost or his/her designee.

The Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee will send a letter using the prescribed methods to the student to request a meeting. This will not be a fact-finding hearing, but rather a developmental, educative meeting to discuss the recommended sanction and the potential impact of College suspension or expulsion with the student. After receipt of the letter, the student will have three working days to meet with the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee. This process will be deemed to constitute a student’s appeal from the recommendation of the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards, or designee, or Conduct Review Board, and the student should prepare all information upon which s/he wishes the Dean of Student Affairs to rely. Based upon the outcome of that meeting and any written information, which the student timely provides to the Dean of Student Affairs, the Dean of Student Affairs can follow one of the following courses of action:

- Deny the recommendation and impose another appropriate sanction.
Accept the recommendation and forward the orders to suspend/expel to the Registrar requesting an immediate involuntary suspension or withdrawal from the College.

The decision of the Dean shall be final and binding, and a follow-up letter shall be sent using the prescribed methods outlining the final decision and the rationale for the decision. The letter shall also contain information regarding other limitations placed on the student (e.g., no access to campus facilities or services and last date of admission).

Parent/Guardian Notification
Menlo College views the education of each student as a cooperative partnership with students, parents/guardians, and the College. The College may deem it necessary to contact a parent(s) or guardian(s) in cases involving students who have been found responsible for violating campus alcohol or drug policies. Parents/guardians may also be called when there is a concern that a student may be a danger to himself/herself or others, and/or when there are serious concerns for the students’ safety and well-being.

Notification to Academic Advisor
Menlo College views the education of each student as a cooperative partnership. Final outcomes concerning conduct cases may be given to each student’s academic advisor. Academic advisors are encouraged to speak with each student concerning their discipline record and how this record may be impacting their academic progress.

6.0 Prohibited Sexual Conduct: Sexual Misconduct, Sexual Assault, Stalking, and Relationship Violence
Menlo has disciplinary and administrative procedures for making formal determinations of whether Prohibited Sexual Conduct has occurred, which are described in Section 6.12, below. Prohibited Sexual Conduct is a severe form of sexual harassment. An individual who violates this policy may be subject to criminal prosecution and civil litigation.

6.1 Applicability
All students, faculty, staff, affiliates and others participating in College programs and activities are subject to this policy. This policy also applies to reports of incidents of Prohibited Sexual Conduct as required by Title IX.

6.2 Policy Statement
Acts of sexual misconduct, sexual assault, stalking and relationship (dating or domestic) violence (collectively “Prohibited Sexual Conduct”) is unacceptable and will not be tolerated at Menlo College. The College investigates or responds to reports of Prohibited Sexual Conduct under circumstances in which (i) the accused person is subject to this policy and the Impacted Party (the individual who experienced the Prohibited Sexual Conduct) is a student, faculty, staff member or program participant, and there is a connection between the allegations and College programs or activities; or (ii) investigation and response are necessary for the proper functioning of the College, including the safety of the College community or preservation of a respectful and safe climate at the College. Students, faculty and staff found to be in violation of this policy will be subject to discipline up to and including termination, expulsion or other appropriate institutional sanctions; affiliates and program participants may be removed from College programs and/or prevented from returning to campus.

6.3 What is Prohibited Sexual Conduct?
Prohibited Sexual Conduct is the umbrella term that Menlo uses to collectively define different types of misconduct relating to assault, violence or exploitation of a sexual nature or connected to an intimate relationship. Prohibited Sexual Conduct includes Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Assault, Stalking, and Relationship (dating or domestic) Violence. Under federal law, Prohibited Sexual Conduct is a severe form of sexual harassment.

6.4 What Are Sexual Misconduct and Sexual Assault?
Sexual misconduct is the commission of unwanted sexual conduct, whether by a stranger or non-stranger and regardless of the gender of any party, which occurs without indication of consent. Sexual assault is sexual misconduct as defined with an additional wrongful act(s). This may include the accomplishment of the unwanted sexual conduct (i) against a person’s will by means of force (express or implied), violence, duress, menace, fear or fraud, or (ii) when a person is incapacitated due to unconsciousness, sleep and/or intoxicating substances or is unaware of the nature of the act.

6.5 What conduct is covered by this policy?
Sexual Assault or Sexual Misconduct
The following acts or attempted acts can be the subject of a Sexual Misconduct or Sexual Assault charge:

a. Vaginal or anal intercourse
b. Digital penetration
c. Oral copulation
d. Penetration with a foreign object

Additional Acts of Sexual Misconduct
The following acts can be the subject of a Sexual Misconduct charge:

a. Unwanted touching of an intimate body part (whether directly or through clothing)
b. Unwanted kissing
c. The recording, photographing, transmitting, viewing or distributing intimate or sexual images without the knowledge and consent of all parties involved.

Other Acts
Other unwanted acts of a sexual nature may constitute sexual harassment.

6.6 What is the difference between stranger assault and non-stranger assault?
For the purposes of this policy, a non-stranger is someone known to the accused, whether through a casual meeting or through a longstanding relationship, including a dating or domestic relationship. A stranger is someone unknown to the Impacted Party at the time of the assault. While California law requires colleges to describe how a school will respond to instances of stranger and non-stranger assaults, Menlo applies the same policies for both stranger and non-stranger assaults.

6.7 What Is Consent?
Consent is an affirmative act or statement by each person that is informed, freely given and mutually understood. It is the responsibility of each person involved in a sexual activity to ensure that he or she has the affirmative consent of the other or others to engage in the sexual activity. Affirmative consent must be ongoing throughout a sexual activity and can be revoked at any time. Lack of protest or resistance does not mean consent, nor does silence mean consent. Consent to one act by itself does not constitute consent to another act. The existence of a dating relationship between the persons involved, or the fact of past sexual relations, should never by itself be assumed to be an indicator of consent. If coercion, intimidation, threats and/or physical force are used, there is no consent. If a person is mentally or physically incapacitated so that the person cannot understand the fact, nature or extent of the sexual situation, there is no consent; this includes conditions due to alcohol or drug consumption or being asleep or unconscious. Whether one has taken advantage of a position of influence over another may be a factor in determining consent.

6.8 What is Stalking?
Stalking is engaging in a course of conduct directed at a specific person(s) that would cause a reasonable person to (i) fear for his or her safety or the safety of others, or (ii) suffer substantial emotional distress.

6.9 What is Relationship Violence?
Relationship violence, including dating and domestic violence, is physical violence relating to a current or former romantic or intimate relationship regardless of the length of the relationship or gender of the individuals in the relationship. Relationship violence also includes conduct that would cause a reasonable person to be fearful for his or her safety.

6.10 Getting Immediate Help
If you or someone you know has experienced Prohibited Sexual Conduct, here are some steps to consider:

a. If you are in immediate danger or if you believe there could be an ongoing threat to the community, please call 911, or 8-911 from a campus phone.

b. Get to a safe place and speak to a confidential resource. Confidential resources have special legal protection and will not share your name or personal information with anyone. They are able to provide for your immediate mental well-being and to discuss your options with you. A complete list of confidential resources is provided at the end of this section.

c. Campus confidential resource: Mental Health Counselor @ 650-543-3798.

d. For all College community members, the YWCA Rape Crisis Hotline is available 24 hours a day at (650) 493-7273 or (408) 287-3000.

e. You are encouraged to seek medical attention and a medical-legal examination for evidence collection purposes. Please see information about medical resources.

f. You are encouraged to contact the police, although you are not required to make a report to the police. Menlo has its own security officer, who can be reached at (650) 400-5837.
for assistance and support. College officials also will assist you in contacting local law enforcement authorities, if you request assistance. If you believe that there is an ongoing threat to your safety from a particular individual, you may request an Emergency Protective Restraining Order from a California police officer.

g. If you are able, you are encouraged to write down what you remember about the incident. (You might also ask a friend to help you.) If possible, record information in a chronological order, including details such as names of the accused and witnesses, time-estimates and locations. This record will assist you in recalling the event later and might assist you in any further process, such as speaking to the police, doctors or College staff.

h. Students in need of immediate College assistance or interim accommodations should contact the resources listed here; Menlo provides 24-hour assistance. Please note that requesting interim safety measures or accommodations (e.g., housing or academic) will result in a formal notification to the College. For an immediate No Contact Order, a temporary housing accommodation or similar urgent assistance, during business hours contact:

6.11 Reporting Acts of Prohibited Sexual Conduct to the College

Where to Report
Reports of Prohibited Sexual Conduct relating to students, either as the Impacted Party or as the accused party should be reported to Menlo College’s Title IX Officer, Jay Naidu, at (650) 543-3733.

What to Report
For College staff members required to report Prohibited Sexual Conduct, the following information (if known) should be provided:

- Name of impacted party
- Name of responding party (if known)
- Date of the incident
- Date of report
- To whom report was made
- Location of the incident (be specific: not "responding party’s room" but “responding party’s room in Kratt Hall" or "off-campus in downtown Palo Alto").
- Time of the incident
- Nature of the conduct; be as specific as possible, identify the category/ies of Prohibited Sexual Conduct (e.g., sexual misconduct, sexual assault, stalking, or relationship violence), and specific allegations (e.g., sexual misconduct, impacted party awoke to responding party touching her breasts without permission).
Who Must Report
Except for College-recognized off-campus confidential resources, all College staff members (including student staff members) with knowledge of unreported concerns relating to Prohibited Sexual Conduct are expected to report such allegations to the Title IX Officer, Jay Naidu at (650) 543-3733.

The College urges an individual who has been subjected to Prohibited Sexual Conduct to make an official report, whether or not he/she intends at that time to seek criminal or civil redress or pursue internal disciplinary measures. A report of the matter will be dealt with promptly and equitably. The College will not discipline parties or witnesses for drug and alcohol violations (relating to voluntary ingestion) that do not place the health or safety of any other person at risk.

6.12 College Response to Allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct

Administrative (Non-Disciplinary) Response & Investigation
Upon notice of any concern regarding Prohibited Sexual Conduct, the College will promptly assess the situation and respond. The response by the College will include instituting any interim safety measures or accommodations necessary to ensure the safety of the impacted party and the Menlo Community. The College will first assess whether an investigation will be conducted; that is, whether the allegation(s), if true, would rise to the level of Prohibited Sexual Conduct, and if so, whether a formal investigation is appropriate under the circumstances, taking into account whether the impacted party requested confidentiality. The decision-makers to assess whether to move forward to an investigation are:

In instances in which the College determines to move forward to an investigation, each party will have the same opportunities within the process including: written notice of the concern, an opportunity to respond and be interviewed, and an opportunity to identify relevant witnesses and evidence.

Investigations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct will be timely and equitable. The College will review relevant information. While corroborating evidence of accounts is helpful, it is not always available and the credible account of one party can be sufficient to establish a fact. The College will make good faith efforts to complete investigations under Title IX within a 60-day timeframe; extensions may be appropriate in some matters. Investigations of allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct may be conducted by the Title IX Officer or his/her trained designee, or by outside resources, depending upon who the parties are and the nature of the conduct alleged. All cases involving students will be investigated in consultation with the Title IX Officer. The standard of proof for all determinations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct during an administrative review process is the preponderance of the evidence (i.e., whether the conduct more likely than not occurred). Appeal rights are as provided in specifically applicable policies.

Student-related Prohibited Sexual Conduct will be investigated under the Title IX Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault, Sexual Misconduct, Relationship (Dating) Violence and Stalking Administrative Policy and Procedures, whether the accused (responding party) is a student, faculty or staff member, or third party. Both parties have the right to appeal.
The following sanctions may be imposed upon any student found to be in violation of the Student Code of Conduct or Menlo College policies:

a. Warning: In instances of minor violations, the student may be warned in writing of the possible consequences of continuing such behavior. Additional conditions may be applied.

b. Probation: A student placed on probation is not in good standing with the College for a specified period of time, and restrictions may be placed on his or her actions. The probation usually extends over a stated period during which it is clearly understood that the student is subject to further disciplinary action, which may include removal from the residence halls and/or suspension or dismissal if he or she violates the terms of the probation or in any way fails to conduct himself/herself as a responsible member of the community. In cases involving probation, a behavioral contract will usually be required, indicating the conditions of probation, the specific time period, the nature of any suspended privileges, and when the student may regain the privilege(s), if at all.

c. Loss of Privileges: Denial of specified privileges for a designated period of time.

d. Fines: Monetary fines appropriate to the violation.

e. Restitution: Monetary compensation to the victim(s) for loss, damage, or injury.

f. Educational Sanctions: Work assignments, service to the College, developing/implementing programs, writing papers, creating flyers/brochures, or other related educational assignments (such assignments must have the prior approval of the Director of Residential Life and Community Standards or designee).

g. Residence Hall Relocation: Mandatory relocation of a resident student to a different room and/or different residence hall. The student is responsible for any charges involved in changing rooms (e.g., from a double room to a single room).

h. Residence Hall Suspension: Separation of a residential or non-residential student from the residence halls for a definite period of time, after which the student is eligible to apply to return. Conditions for readmission may or may not be specified. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls; the student will remain liable for 100% of the semester room and board fees. The student will be excluded from the residence halls area (defined as the residential buildings and the adjacent outside areas) and the dining hall. Violation of the conditions of residence hall suspension may be cause for further disciplinary action in the form of possible suspension or expulsion from the College.

i. Expulsion from Residence Hall: Permanent separation of a student from the residence halls. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls; the student will remain liable for 100% of the semester room and board fees. The student will be excluded from the residence halls area (defined as the residential buildings and the adjacent outside areas) and the dining hall. Violation of the conditions of residence halls expulsion may be cause for further disciplinary action in the form of possible suspension or expulsion from the College.

j. Permanent Separation: Permanent separation of the student from the College campus for any reason, with the possible exceptions of attending classes or academic functions (e.g., library use and academic speaker programs).

k. Mandated Counseling or Rehabilitation.
l. College Suspension: Enforced separation of the student from the institution. Suspension may extend for a semester, for a specified period, until a specifically designated date, or until a stated condition is met. During the period of suspension, the student will be excluded from all classes, seminars, and programs; will not be allowed to participate in College-sponsored events or activities on or off campus; and will not be allowed on College premises. If the person lives in the residence halls, s/he will be required to move out of the residence halls; the student will remain liable for 100% of the semester room and board fees. Furthermore, the student will be liable for 100% of the tuition and any other fees associated with attendance at the College for the semester. Violation of the conditions of suspension, College policies, or regulations during the period of suspension may be cause for further disciplinary action, usually in the form of expulsion from the College.

m. College Expulsion (Involuntary Withdrawal): Permanent separation of the student from the College. The student will be excluded from all classes, seminars, and programs; will not be allowed to participate in any College-sponsored activities on or off campus; and will not be allowed on College premises. If the person lives in the residence halls, he or she will be required to move out of the residence halls; the student will remain liable for 100% of the semester room and board fees. Furthermore, the student will be liable for 100% of the tuition and any other fees associated with attendance at the College for the semester.

n. Organizational Sanctions: Organizational sanctions are applicable to all residential and non-residential organizations, clubs, and similarly organized groups that are responsible for compliance with all College policies. Upon determination that the group has encouraged violations or did not take reasonable steps to prevent violations of College policies, the group may be subjected to permanent or temporary removal of recognition and funds.

o. Loss of automobile privileges on campus.

6.13 Administrative Measures Available to the College
The College will take steps to prevent the recurrence of Prohibited Sexual Conduct through safety measures and will redress its effects through appropriate accommodations. The College, in implementing such measures and accommodations, will seek to minimize the impact and burden on the involved parties consistent with protecting the well-being of the involved parties and the community. To the extent reasonable and feasible, the College will consult with the impacted party and the responding party in determining accommodations and safety measures. Appropriate interim or permanent measures may include:

a. Housing accommodations
b. Academic accommodations
c. Work-related accommodations
d. Security escorts
e. No contact directives or stay away orders
f. Limitation on extracurricular or athletic activities
g. Removal from College community
h. Referral to College disciplinary process
i. Review or revision of College policies, procedures or practices
j. Training for students, faculty, staff or others
k. Counseling services
l. Other appropriate actions as necessary to stop the Prohibited Sexual Conduct, prevent its recurrence, and remedy its effects on the Impacted Party and the College community, to improve College policies or practices or to ensure the safety of the impacted party or College community.

6.14 Obtaining Interim Measures
When the College has notice of an allegation of Prohibited Sexual Conduct, a qualified College staff member (such as Dean of Student Affairs, Human Resources Manager, Title IX Officer or Provost) may impose interim accommodations or safety measures, which will generally remain in effect throughout the duration of the College investigation. In imposing interim measures, a qualified College staff member should consult with the Title IX Officer (for students) or the Sexual Harassment Policy Office (for staff or faculty). Interim measures may include the same safety measures or accommodations provided above.

6.15 Disciplinary & Corrective Action Processes
An act of Prohibited Sexual Conduct is a violation of the fundamental standard governing student behavior. The College has processes that focus on the imposition of discipline and/or corrective action for individuals found responsible for violating the fundamental standard or a College Policy.

The Title IX Officer will investigate all formal disciplinary complaints of student misconduct, including allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct and will file formal charges if the evidence supports the allegation. The Conduct Review Process is the disciplinary process at Menlo designed specifically to consider allegations of Prohibited Sexual Conduct with specially trained reviewers. Sanctions, for students found responsible for such a violation, range from a formal written warning, suspension for a period of time, or expulsion from the College. Mediation between parties is never available for cases of sexual assault or misconduct.

Menlo processes guarantee that the rights of students, including those of the responding party, are protected. The impacted party and the responding party may each choose to be accompanied by a person of his or her choice (a support person) at all stages of the disciplinary process. Both parties have the right to an appeal. The standard of review is preponderance of the evidence (i.e., more likely than not the alleged misconduct occurred) and both parties will be notified of the outcome in disciplinary matters. For more information, please see the process and procedures governing student disciplinary cases involving Prohibited Sexual Conduct.

6.16 Confidentiality of Information
The College will make reasonable and appropriate efforts to preserve an individual’s privacy and to protect the confidentiality of information. However, because of laws relating to reporting and other state and federal laws, the College cannot guarantee confidentiality relating to incidents of Prohibited Sexual Conduct except where those reports are privileged communications to Confidential Resources (see below). Exceptions to maintaining confidentiality are set by law; for example, physicians and nurses who treat any physical injury sustained during a sexual assault are required to report it to law enforcement. Also, physicians, nurses, psychologists, psychiatrists, teachers, and social workers must report a sexual assault committed against a person under the age of 18. Except for confidential resources, information shared with other individuals is not legally protected from being disclosed. If the individual requests confidentiality, the College's ability to respond may be limited, including pursuing discipline or administrative remedies against the accused, although, where feasible, the College will take reasonable steps to prevent Prohibited Sexual Conduct and limit its effects. It is not always possible to provide confidentiality depending on the seriousness of the allegation and other factors, which will be weighed by the College in conjunction with an individual's request for confidentiality. These factors include circumstances that suggest an increased risk of the accused committing additional acts of Prohibited Sexual Conduct or other violence, whether the Prohibited Sexual Conduct was perpetrated with a weapon, the age of the student, and the ability of the College to obtain evidence by other means.

The College takes requests for confidentiality seriously, but must also consider its responsibility to provide a safe and nondiscriminatory environment for all students and the College community. The College in such circumstances will make sure the impacted party is aware s/he is protected from retaliation.

As required by the Clery Act, all disclosures to any College employee of an on-campus sexual assault must be reported for statistical purposes only (without personal identifiers) to the Menlo College Human Resources Department, which has the responsibility for tabulating and annually publishing sexual assault and other crime statistics. Such reports are for statistical purposes and do not include individual identities or other personally identifiable information.

In California, a police officer is required to ask a victim of sexual assault and domestic violence (Section 273.5 Penal Code) if s/he wants his or her name to remain confidential (Penal Code 293(a)). If a victim elects to have his or her name remain confidential, the police will not list the victim's name in a crime log or release it to College officials without permission (Penal Code 293(d)). If the District Attorney elects to prosecute a sexual assault, the name of an adult victim may be subject to disclosure.

If a formal complaint against a student is filed with the Title IX Officer (administrative process) or the Office of Community Standards (disciplinary process) then the responding party must be provided with the name of the impacted party and advised of the specific allegations.

6.17 Retaliation

It is a violation of College policy to retaliate against any person(s) making a complaint of Prohibited Sexual Conduct or against any person(s) cooperating in the investigation (including testifying as a witness to) of any allegation of Prohibited Sexual Conduct. Retaliation should be reported promptly to the Title IX Officer or Security. Individuals engaging in retaliation are subject to discipline and/or employment action. Retaliation includes intimidation, threats, coercion, harassment or other forms of discrimination against any individual who has brought forward a concern or participated in the College’s Title IX process.
6.18 Medical-Legal Evidence Preservation & Collection

Individuals who have experienced a sexual assault are encouraged but not required to have a medical-legal exam performed by a trained medical professional as soon as possible (but within 72 hours) after the assault. The medical professional will address an individual’s medical needs related to the assault as well as collect evidence in accordance with established protocols for evidence collection. In order to preserve evidence, individuals are advised not to shower, wash, urinate, wipe, change clothes, eat, drink or brush their teeth prior to the exam, if possible.

Even if an individual is uncertain about whether s/he wants to pursue criminal or other remedies, participating in the exam allows for the collection and preservation of evidence that might be useful should the individual subsequently decide s/he wants to pursue some type of action.

Medical-legal exams are performed in San Mateo County at no cost to a victim of sexual assault. A victim does not need to file a report in order to obtain a medical-legal exam; however, hospitals are required to notify the police if a physical injury has been sustained, in which event, the hospital will notify the police agency that has jurisdictional responsibility where the assault took place. Victims have the option to speak with the police or not. The ability to have a medical-legal exam performed is not dependent upon speaking with the police or filing a police report.

If a victim needs assistance traveling to a medical facility, a College staff person or a member of Security will provide assistance.

For assistance in receiving a medical-legal exam, contact:

- YWCA Rape Crisis Hotline: (650) 493-7293 or (408) 287-3000
- Department of Security: 911 or (650) 400-5837

To collect and preserve evidence of Prohibited Sexual Conduct Impacted Parties are encouraged to photograph injuries; retain emails, text messages, phone records and other similar evidence; and maintain a journal or other means to document incidents.

6.19 Reporting to the Police

For a sexual assault that occurs on the Menlo campus, contact the Menlo Security Office at (650) 400-5837 or, in case of an emergency, 911 or 8-911 from a campus phone.

For an off-campus incident, call the local police jurisdiction:

- In Atherton, call 911 or (650) 688-6500
- In Menlo Park, call 911 or (650) 325-4424

6.20 College Action in Conjunction with Civil & Criminal Processes

In addition to College disciplinary actions, a person who engages in Prohibited Sexual Conduct may be the subject of criminal prosecution and/or civil litigation.

Individuals experiencing Prohibited Sexual Conduct have the option to notify law enforcement or not to notify law enforcement. Impacted parties do not need to report matters to the police to be eligible to receive accommodations from the College. College officials will assist individuals wishing to report a matter to the police. A police report must be made before a criminal prosecution can be considered by the local District Attorney. The chances of successful prosecution are greater if the report to the police is timely and is supported by the collection of medical-legal evidence (see Medical-Legal Evidence Collection, Section 6.18, above).

Victims have the right to request that law enforcement implement emergency protective restraining orders. Victims who receive emergency or permanent protective or restraining orders through a criminal or civil process should notify the College’s Title IX Officer, Jay Naidu, at jnaidu@menlo.edu or at (650) 543-3733. The College will work with the victim and the person who is the subject of the restraining order to manage compliance with the order on Menlo’s campus.

Because the requirements and standards for finding a violation of criminal law are different from the standards for finding a violation of this Policy, criminal investigations or reports are not determinative of whether Prohibited Sexual Conduct has occurred for purposes of this Policy. In other words, conduct may constitute a violation under this Policy even if law enforcement agencies lack sufficient evidence of a crime and therefore decline to prosecute. Moreover, the filing of a complaint of Prohibited Sexual Conduct with the College is independent of any criminal investigation or proceeding. The College will not wait for the conclusion of any criminal investigation proceeding to commence its own investigation and/or to take interim measures to protect the Impacted Party and College community. Both a criminal investigation and a College investigation involving the same incident(s) may occur simultaneously.

A person who wishes specific information about legal options should consult a private attorney or advocacy organization. Please see the Section 6.24 for resource information.

6.21 Education and Prevention
Bystander Intervention
Menlo College encourages all members of the Menlo community to be active bystanders against sexual violence. The following information is based on bystander intervention research done at the College of New Hampshire and the guidelines developed by UNH. ("Bringing in the Bystander®" is a registered trademark of the College of New Hampshire on behalf of Prevention Innovations.) Learn to recognize the signs of danger and learn how to intervene safely. Commit to being an active bystander.

Some simple steps to becoming an active bystander:

- Notice the situation; be aware of your surroundings.
- Interpret it as a problem (Do I recognize that someone needs help?)
- Feel responsible to act; see yourself as being part of the solution to help.
- Know what to do; educate yourself on what to do.
- Intervene safely; take action but be sure to keep yourself safe (see next step).
How to Intervene Safely:

- Tell another person; being with others is a good idea when a situation looks dangerous.
- Ask a person you are worried about if he/she is okay; provide options and a listening ear.
- Distract or redirect individuals in unsafe situations.
- Ask the person if he/she wants to leave; make sure that he/she gets home safely.
- Call the police (911) or someone else in authority or yell for help.

What can my friends and I do to be safe?
Take care of each other. Remember these tips when you are out.

- Have a plan. Talk with your friends about your plans BEFORE you go out. Do you feel like drinking? Are you interested in hooking up? Where do you want to go? Having a clear plan ahead of time helps friends look after one another.
- Go out together. Go out as a group and come home as a group; never separate and never leave your friend(s) behind.
- Watch out for others. If you are walking at night with friends and notice a woman walking by herself in the same direction, ask her to join you so she doesn’t have to walk alone.
- Diffuse situations. If you see a friend coming on too strong to someone who may be too drunk to make a consensual decision, interrupt, distract, or redirect the situation. If you are too embarrassed or shy to speak out, get someone else to step in.
- Trust your instincts. If a situation or person doesn’t seem “right” to you, trust your gut and remove yourself, if possible, from the situation.

6.22 Education Resources

Menlo College provides resources for education about and prevention of Prohibited Sexual Conduct. Incoming students participate in a series of educational events during New Student Orientation. Throughout the year, undergraduates are invited to participate in programming on the prevention of Prohibited Sexual Conduct. Students, faculty and staff are urged to take advantage of on-campus prevention and education resources (both College-supported and student-led), and are encouraged to participate actively in prevention and risk reduction efforts.

The Student Affairs Office, available at (650) 543-3779, provides comprehensive and consistent response to incidents of sexual and relationship violence to the campus community. The Office of Student Affairs also assists with educational outreach and training to increase awareness, sensitivity, and community accountability in the prevention of these acts.

The Human Resources Office, available at (650) 543-3733, provides on-line training programs regarding sexual harassment for the campus community. Mandatory training is required for all faculty and staff.

6.23 Public Release of Information

Requests for information concerning an incident of Prohibited Sexual Conduct should be directed to the College’s Title IX Coordinator, Jay Naidu at (650) 543-3996.
As required by state and federal law, Menlo’s Security Office must collect and report annually statistical information concerning sexual assaults occurring in its jurisdiction. To promote public safety, the Office also alerts the campus community to incidents and trends of immediate concern.

7.0 Harassment Policy

Menlo College is committed to providing a College environment that is free from harassment. Harassment of any individual by any other individual is prohibited by this policy. The school will treat allegations of harassment seriously and will review and investigate such allegations in a prompt, confidential and thorough manner. A charge of harassment shall not, in and of itself, create a presumption of wrongdoing. However, substantiation of an allegation of harassment will result in disciplinary action (see Code of Conduct).

Harassment occurs when an individual is subjected to unwelcome behavior that is offensive or intimidating that interferes with work or study, because of the individuals’ race, color, religion, age, national origin, physical or mental disability, marital status, gender, gender orientation, or sexual orientation. Harassment can occur any time on campus and may also occur off campus at a school-related activity. Harassment can include, but is not limited to any or all of the following:

1. Verbal Harassment: Conduct such as suggestive comments, derogatory comments or slurs, jokes; threatening words, or suggestive or insulting sounds;
2. Physical Harassment: Unwanted physical touching, contact, assault, deliberate impeding or blocking movements, or any intimidating interference with normal work or movement;
3. Visual Harassment: Derogatory, demeaning, or inappropriate posters, cartoons, photographs, visual images, emails text messages, misuse of social media, written words, drawings, facial or hand gestures; and
4. Sexual Harassment: Includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when any or all of the following occurs:
Submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of a student’s academic status or progress. Submission to or rejection of such conduct by a student is used as the basis of academic decisions affecting the individual. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with an individual’s academic performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive educational environment.

Specific examples of sexual harassment include but are not limited to:
- Making unsolicited sexual advances, touching and propositions.
- Using sexually degrading words to describe an individual or an individual’s body.
- Displaying sexually suggestive objects or pictures.
- Telling inappropriate or sexually related jokes.
- Making reprisals, threats of reprisals, or implied threats of reprisals following a negative response to sexual advances.
- Sexually suggestive facial or hand gestures which would depict to another sexual acts.
- Cyber bullying, defined as willful and repeated harm inflicted on another person through electronic media. It is deemed to be cyber bullying when any student sends a partial or fully naked picture of any person or attempts to be harmful or cruel to another student or individual by sending or posting offensive material (including words, pictures or images) using a cell phone, the internet or other electronic device. Serious incidents, including sexting or threats of violence, may be turned over to law enforcement authorities for prosecution.

It is the student’s responsibility to:
1. Conduct himself/herself in a manner which contributes to a positive school environment.
2. Avoid any activity that may be considered harassing or offensive (as defined by this policy).
3. If comfortable doing so, inform anyone harassing him or her that the behavior is offensive and unwelcome.
4. Report all incidents of harassment, offensive or unwelcome behavior to the Dean of Student Affairs or another College official.
5. If informed that s/he is perceived as engaging in harassing, offensive or unwelcome conduct, to discontinue the conduct immediately.

Students at Menlo College shall not be retaliated against if they make complaints or who are witnesses, to potential harassment. Any student found to have engaged in retaliation will be subject to discipline.

Student Policy for Acceptable Use of Menlo College’s Electronic Information Resources

Purpose/ Introduction/ Applicability
The intent of this policy is to identify appropriate and inappropriate use of Menlo College’s Electronic Information Resources (EIR). This policy applies to all users of the College’s EIRs.

It is Menlo College’s policy to provide EIRs to students, faculty, and staff to be used in ways that are consistent with the College’s mission and in activities that support that mission. These resources include computers, terminals, networks, modems, printers, portable electronic devices, telephones (including cell phones), and electronic media.

Users of the College’s EIRs are expected to comply with the law, Menlo College’s policies, industry regulations, and any contractual obligations that may apply to their activities. This applies to all of the College’s EIRs as well as to all computers and computing equipment, whether College-owned or not, connected to campus networks or other College EIRs.

Acceptable Use Policy
All users of Menlo College’s EIRs are expected to comply with applicable laws and regulations, the College’s policies, and any contractual obligations. These include, but are not limited to Section 502 of the California Penal Code and the following specific policies and expectations. Violations may result in loss of access to EIRs, disciplinary action, and additional consequences of prosecution under the law.

The following activities are prohibited
1. Use of any College resources in a manner that violates the law or the College’s policies, including but not limited to, violation of copyrights, patent protections, trademarks, license agreements, intellectual property law or contracts that specify conditions of use of intellectual property at Menlo College;
2. Interfering with the normal operation of Menlo College’s EIRs. This includes but is not limited to:
   a. Use of the College’s EIRs for purposes or in a manner that could reasonably be expected to disrupt the College’s EIRs.
   b. Any action that disrupts the availability of a system or resource for others, such as running programs or sending electronic messages that utilize all system resources and prevent others from making productive use of the system.
   c. Attempts to alter, damage, delete, destroy or otherwise abuse any computer or network resource, including development or use of malicious programs.
   d. Accessing or attempting to access the College’s EIRs or facilities without proper authorization, or intentionally enabling others to do so. This includes, but is not limited to, disclosing a password or otherwise making a password-protected account available to others; running programs that attempt to calculate or guess passwords, or that are designed and crafted to trick other users into disclosing their passwords; sharing or transferring account privileges to another person; and electronic eavesdropping on communications facilities.
   e. Use of the College’s EIRs to harass others in a manner that interferes with their rights or in a manner that creates a hostile working or learning environment in violation of Menlo College's policy, including sexual or other forms of harassment.

f. Sending unsolicited commercial or bulk email (spam) or otherwise transmitting inappropriate mass messages.

g. Employing a false identity (the name or electronic identification of another).

h. Storing files containing copyrighted material on Menlo College's servers. Any file determined to have a copyright that the College does not have permission, license or ownership of and that is stored on the College's servers will be removed at any time without notice. This includes files that the student as an individual may own copyright, license or otherwise has permission to use.

i. Storing of video, music and multimedia files, regardless of copyright, on the College’s shared server resources. Such files will be removed at any time without notice. This includes files that the student as an individual may own copyright, license or otherwise has permission to use.

j. The College’s EIRs may not be used for commercial purposes, for personal financial gain, nor may the services be exchanged for money or any other thing of value. Advertising of the availability for sale of miscellaneous used personal property belonging to the resident is not commercial within the meaning of this paragraph.

k. Users may not intercept or monitor network communications of others.

Student Social Media Policy

Menlo College recognizes the power and ability of social media to build community, foster positive relationships, and promote free expression. However, these same new media platforms can be used to inflict harm on individuals or groups. Accordingly, the College requires students to recognize that uncivil behavior, harassment and/or name calling on the College's webpages or social media platforms is unacceptable, will not be tolerated and can violate College code of conduct and legal guidelines. The College’s core principle of respect for all persons must apply in all environments, including the virtual world of social media.

8.0 Crime Statistics/Clery Act

The Clery Act is a federal law requiring colleges and universities to disclose information regarding crime on or around their campuses. The Human Resources Director is responsible for publishing the Annual Security Report summarizing crime statistics. This report is available at https://www.menlo.edu/about/safety-security/. The College’s Campus Security Office maintains a daily crime log.

Sex Offender Disclosure

The California Department of Justice, sheriff’s departments, police departments serving jurisdictions of 200,000 people or more, and many other local law enforcement authorities maintain for public access a database of the locations of persons required to register pursuant to paragraph (1) of subdivision (a) of Section 290.4 of the California Penal Code. The database is updated on a quarterly basis and is a source of information about the presence of these individuals in any neighborhood.
The Department of Justice also maintains a Sex Offender Identification Line through which inquiries about individuals may be made. This is a “900” telephone service. Callers must have specific information about individuals they are checking. Information regarding neighborhoods is not available through the “900” telephone service.

Security Programs

Menlo offers a variety of programs and publications aimed at reducing the incidence of crime on campus and promoting responsibility for a safe and secure campus. Contact the Office of Student Affairs for more detailed descriptions of these programs.

Special Programs

Special programs are held throughout the year on various topics such as: self-defense, sexual assault, and alcohol awareness. Contact the Office of Student Affairs or your residence hall staff if there is a particular program you would like to see sponsored on campus.

Security/Safety Tips

Safety and security entail certain responsibilities for all of us. Your responsibility in supporting a safe and secure environment is important. The following crime prevention tips will help you protect your property and enhance your personal safety.

- Insurance - Make sure your belongings are covered by insurance, either under your parents’ policy or your own.
- Always lock your doors - Keep your room door locked at all times, even when it is occupied; do not give out your room code to anyone.
- Close external doors - Do not prop open the outside doors to any building; students’ assistance in keeping the doors locked is expected.
- Report suspicious persons - Report loiterers or suspicious persons in your building immediately to Campus Security or residence hall staff.
- Report theft - Any incidence of theft should be reported immediately so an investigation can begin (see section on crime reporting).
- Engrave your possessions - Identify your most valuable items (TV, stereo, computer, etc.) by engraving a distinctive number on them.
- Lock your bicycle - Use a bike lock that cannot be easily cut through.
- Keep control of your wallets, purses, checkbooks, cell phones, computer laptops and tablets, and jewelry. If not in your immediate possession, keep them out of sight. Never leave these or other personal possession of value visible in unattended vehicles, even if locked.
- Meetings - Attend residence hall or campus meetings and programs on crime prevention and security issues.

9.0 Identification

Students are required to carry their student I.D. and show it to any staff member or security personnel upon request.
10.0 Lost Property
Lost property may be claimed at the Security Office between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday. After thirty days, unclaimed property will be disposed of or donated to charity.

11.0 Private Menlo Events Sponsored by Student Organizations
When a Menlo College student organization sponsors an approved event involving consumption of alcoholic beverages on campus, the function is recognized as a private Menlo College event. Controlled alcohol consumption is allowed for Menlo students and their adult guests (21 years and over) in the confines of the approved facility. The organization’s officers and the advisor shall assume full responsibility for the following:

- The Office of Student Affairs must approve the event at least 10 business days in advance of the date of the event by meeting all the requirements as listed on the Alcohol Event Request Form.
- Events must be scheduled to ensure they do not interfere with residence hall quiet hours.
- No mention of alcohol may be contained in any advertisement as it relates to the event.
- The event shall be limited to members of the Menlo College community and their guests; all Menlo students will be held responsible for the behavior of their guests.
- The alcoholic consumption and the event will be held within the approved area and controlled by an appropriate number of security staff or Student Affairs staff as determined by the Office of Student Affairs.
- The sponsoring group is responsible for returning the space used for a function to its original state including room set-up and cleanliness, within 24 hours unless otherwise specified; at the discretion of the Office of Student Affairs, if the space is not returned to its proper condition the group responsible may have a cleaning fee charged and/or lose event/alcohol privileges for a duration of time.
- The advisor (or his/her designated staff member) to the sponsoring organization must be in attendance for the duration of the event when alcohol is being served; the Alcohol Request Form must accurately state the name of the faculty/staff representative responsible for the event.
- A minimum of five members of the sponsoring group must remain sober prior to and during the event; these students must be identified to Student Affairs personnel prior to the event and remain sober prior to and throughout the event (for this purpose, sober is to be defined as having no alcoholic drinks prior to or during the event)
- Students 21 or over may serve alcohol only if it is contained within single serving containers (12 oz. beer, 4 oz. individual wine containers, etc.) and supervised by a faculty/staff of the College
- All other alcohol (kegs, 750 ml. or larger wine bottles), may only be served by an approved state-licensed and fully insured beverage/catering company (e.g., Sodexo); any fees associated with a bartending service are the responsibility of the organization.
- Hard liquor/mixed drinks are not allowed at any student affiliated Menlo College event

Alcoholic Beverages
Any event with alcohol must be conducted in compliance with all applicable California state laws. Identification wristbands, or other easily visible method of identification, must be used and kept on participants during the entire duration of the event. Only those wearing the bands or markers may be served alcohol. Officials of the approved beverage company or faculty/staff will put the bands on the guest and will check I.D. cards at the entrance of the event. Students may also check photo IDs against the school 21+ birthday lists, but only in conjunction with a faculty/staff presence. Any fake I.D. cards will be confiscated and submitted, with an incident report, to the Dean of Student Affairs or his/her designee. Any underage student found consuming alcohol at a college function will be removed from the function immediately and an incident report will be submitted for disciplinary action.

Alcohol consumption will be limited to a maximum of three hours to promote responsible and safe drinking. Specific methods of limiting consumption are at the discretion of the Office of Student Affairs and include but are not limited to one drink per 30 minutes, per guest, with a maximum of three drinks over three hours. Last call is to be 45 minutes prior to the end of the event. Entertainers for the event may not consume alcohol during the event.

All due care must be exercised to not furnish alcohol to any individual who is obviously intoxicated, regardless of age.

Faculty/Staff Chaperone(s)

The sponsoring group’s advisor or approved designee must be in attendance for the duration of the event if alcohol is being served. Additional chaperones may be needed depending on the number of attendees, location, time, or length of the event. Travel logistics for off-campus events must be pre-approved by the corresponding department head or activity sponsor prior to receiving Menlo funding. The number of chaperones needed for an event will be determined by the Office of Student Affairs. Advisors and chaperones are to remain sober prior to and throughout the event. For this purpose, sober is to be defined as having no alcoholic drinks prior to or during the event.

Non-Alcoholic Beverages

A variety of non-alcoholic beverages and food items must be available in the same area where alcohol is being served. Once these items run out, the serving of alcohol must cease.

Security

Depending on the scope and size of the event, the sponsoring group may need to provide security guards for the function as deemed necessary by the Office of Student Affairs. The Director of Security will determine the number of security guards needed for the event. All costs associated with hiring security are the responsibility of the organization. Security for an event must be approved at least two weeks prior to the event. Members of the security staff may not consume alcohol on duty.

When required, security must be hired for the duration of the event including 30 minutes before start and 30 minutes after closing. Be aware, the security company may charge for a minimum amount of time, regardless of the length of the event. If security is needed, the sponsoring group cannot start serving alcohol without security present.
Non-compliance with any of the above regulations could result in a loss of privileges for sponsoring events, including cancellation of the event at the expense of the sponsoring group, or depending on the severity of the violation, a loss of recognition as a student organization.

12.0 Missing Person Notification Policy
In compliance with the High Education Opportunity Act of 2008, this policy addresses the manner in which the College will proceed in the event that a resident student (i.e., a student living in residence halls on campus) is believed to be missing.

Any concern that a resident student is missing should be immediately directed to Campus Security at (650) 400-5837. A resident student is considered to be missing if the person’s whereabouts have not been established for a period of 24 hours, or if there is information within the 24 hour period that suggests the person is missing. In such circumstances, faculty, staff and students are required to immediately notify Campus Security. Campus Security will notify the appropriate law enforcement agency upon receipt of information that a student is missing. Such notification shall be made in a timely fashion and within 24 hours of receipt of the information.

In support of this policy, resident students are encouraged to provide the College with the name and contact information of someone to be notified in the event the resident student is determined by Campus Security or a local law enforcement agency to be missing. If a resident student is determined to be missing and under 18 years of age and not emancipated, the College is required by law to notify a custodial parent or guardian, or any other contact person designated by the student within 24 hours of when the resident student is determined to be missing.

13.0 Fire Alarms and Drills
Fire safety equipment is in each building to protect life and property, and must not be tampered with. Students initiating false alarms or tampering with safety equipment face severe disciplinary sanctions and possible criminal prosecution. Students must leave a building immediately each time a fire alarm is sounded. Follow these procedures:

- Exit the building immediately by the proper pathways.
- Once outside, move to a clear area away from the building and do not re-enter until instructed to do so by fire personnel or housing staff.
- Failure to evacuate for an alarm will be treated as a serious violation of the Menlo College Code of Conduct; additionally, a minimum fine of $50 will be assessed for failure to evacuate.
14.0 Earthquake Procedures

Before an earthquake:

- Secure all heavy hanging pictures, mirrors, and plants.
- Identify nearby fire extinguishers.
- Know all possible exits from each room.
- Know the location of emergency assembly point.
- Have emergency supplies in your room and car including bottled water, flashlight, clothes, and battery operated radio, medications, first aid kit and canned goods.
- Move heavy breakable items to lowest shelves or secure cabinets.
- Have a contact person outside of the state of California that you and loved ones call to establish communication should an earthquake occur.

During an earthquake, if you are indoors:

- Do not panic – while the motion is frightening, keep calm and ride it out.
- Stay there.
- Get under a strong table or desk and hold on, or stand in a doorway or corner.
- Stay clear of windows, mirrors, and chimneys.
- Do not use elevators.
- Do not run through or near buildings.
- The greatest danger is from falling debris - stay low.
- Once in the open, stay there until the shaking stops.

During an earthquake, if you are outside:

- Stay there
- Move to an open space away from buildings, power lines, poles, trees, and plate glass windows.

During an earthquake, if you are driving:

- Pull to the side and stop, away from overpasses, buildings, and power lines.

After an earthquake is over:

- Wear shoes to avoid injuries from broken glass and debris.
- If time permits, grab a blanket, coat, flashlight, and a portable radio (if available).
- Evacuate the building and go directly to the emergency assembly point.
- Help the injured, elderly, and disabled to evacuate.
- Do not move the seriously injured unless they are in danger of further injury.
- Do not use candles, matches, or open flame during or after a tremor.
- Do not go sightseeing. Report all damage and potential hazards to campus officials.

Be alert to aftershocks that may occur from a few minutes to few hours after the main quake. Do not light a match or turn on a light switch. Keep the streets clear for emergency vehicles. Leave the phone lines open for disaster services. If you need police, fire or ambulance assistance, send a runner to the emergency assembly point.
15.0 Student Complaint Procedure

Menlo College takes very seriously complaints and concerns regarding the institution. If you have a complaint regarding Menlo College, you may present your complaint to the Dean of Student Affairs at andrea.peeters@menlo.edu or the Executive Vice President for Finance & Administration at frank.wasilewski@menlo.edu. Either of these contacts will answer any questions you may have to assure you a fair process. If the complaint leads to the invocation of a judicial process, such process will follow the guidelines set forth in this Student Handbook.

If your complaint is about the institution’s compliance with academic program quality and accrediting standards. WASC is the academic accrediting body for Menlo College. If you believe that your complaint warrants further attention after exhausting all the steps available to you on campus, you may contact The Western Association of Schools and Colleges (WASC) at http://www.wascasenior.org/comments.

An individual may also contact the California Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education for review of a complaint. The contact information for the Bureau is:

California Bureau of Private Postsecondary Education
2535 Capitol Oaks Dr., Ste. 400
Sacramento, CA 95833
(916) 431-6924 (Telephone)
(916) 263-1897 (FAX)
http://www.bppe.ca.gov

Nothing in this disclosure limits any right that you may have to seek civil or criminal legal action to resolve your complaints.

Menlo College has provided this disclosure in compliance with the requirements of the Higher Education Act of 1965, as amended, as regulated in CFR 34, Sections 600.9 (b) (3) and 668.43(b). If anything in this disclosure is out of date, please notify the Executive Vice President for Finance & Administration.

Menlo College is committed to access and excellence in education, including the highest standards of integrity in performance of its mission. To help identify and address concerns about possible legal or policy violations, Menlo College has developed a process for all members of the Menlo College community to report any good faith belief that a violation of law or College policy has occurred.

In this context, "good faith" means that the individual who reports alleged misconduct has a reasonable and honest belief that the misconduct may have occurred and is aware of a fact which would support that belief, though it does not have to be a certainty. If an individual makes an allegation and either disregards or is purposefully ignorant to facts that would disprove the allegation, this is not good faith.
Allegations may include requests by any member of the Menlo College community to violate a law or college policy. In general, allegations may also include bribery, theft, financial or accounting fraud, other types of corruption or acts which endanger the college public health or safety. No member of the Menlo College may directly or indirectly use or attempt to use the official authority or influence of their positions or offices to interfere with the right of an individual to report any alleged inappropriate conduct.

These allegations may be made on an anonymous basis and, even if not on an anonymous basis, without fear of adverse action taken because of any good faith allegations. Reporting individuals who believe they have been subject to retaliation will have the ability to make a report to the college. Raising allegations under this policy will not interfere with legitimate employment decisions; similarly, allegations raised under this policy will not affect a student’s status at Menlo College. Any report that proves to have been both unsubstantiated and made with malice or with knowledge of its falsity, however, is not protected by this policy.

Any person who has a reasonable and good faith belief that there has been any violations of law, breaches of policy or allegations of improper conduct pertaining to the College may file a report through https://www.menlo.edu/tipster. If a report is submitted, the allegations made in the report will be given careful consideration by appropriate college executive personnel. The report may be filed on an anonymous basis, but because investigators are unable to interview anonymous whistleblowers, it may be more difficult to evaluate the credibility of the allegations and therefore, less likely to permit an investigation to be initiated, continued or successfully completed.

Members of the Menlo College community should not feel limited to making a report through the website referenced above. A report of suspected improper conduct described above may also be made to a college administrator who can properly address these concerns. If an individual who raises a concern is not satisfied with the initial response, the individual should take his or her concerns to a college officer whom the individual believes has the authority to review the alleged improper conduct on behalf of the College.

If an individual wishes to make a report against a college officer, the individual may contact the Chair of the Audit Committee of the Menlo College Board of Trustees by writing to:

Audit Committee Chair
C/O The Office of the President of Menlo College
1000 El Camino Real
Atherton, CA 94027-4301
Or via email @ BOT@Menlo.edu

Written complaints made to the Audit Committee Chair will be delivered unopened to the Audit Committee Chair. Although every effort will be made to maintain confidentiality, there can be no absolute guarantee of confidentiality.

Reports are encouraged to be made in writing so as to assure a clear understanding of the issues raised, but the report may be made orally. Whether a report is made through the website or in person, the report should be factual rather than speculative or conclusive; it should also contain as much specific information as possible to allow for proper assessment of the nature, extent, and urgency of the investigation. Requests for confidentiality will be honored to the extent reasonable within the legitimate needs of law and the investigation.

16.0 POSTING POLICY

17.0 Vendor Policy

Off-Campus Vendors
Menlo College may allow off-campus vendors to use the space outside the Dining Hall or Student Union. This is the only form of solicitation allowed on the Menlo College campus. Menlo College reserves the right to refuse space to any vendor the College deems to be inconsistent with the educational mission of the College. Registration forms for off-campus vendors may be obtained from the Office of Student Affairs.

On-Campus Vendors
Menlo College may allow student organizations, campus departments, and campus recruiters to use the space outside the Dining Hall for vending purposes. How to Reserve
Contact the Office of the President at (650) 543-3744 to reserve a space. Approved vendors will receive spaces that are the equivalent of one eight-foot by three-foot table. Student organizations, campus departments and offices, and campus recruiters are given space priority over off-campus vendors. The college will provide a table and two chairs if requested by the vendor. There is no charge for the space, table, or chairs for student organizations, student crafts-persons, Menlo departments and offices, or campus recruiters. Off-campus vendors are charged $75 a table. This fee is payable prior to the date of reservation.

Vendor Policies
- Payment must be received by the Office of the President prior to the space being confirmed; vendors may not set up a table prior to payment being received by the Office of the President.
- Cancellation of reservations for space must be made at least two business days prior to the date scheduled; if no cancellation is received, payment will not be returned.

19.27 Gender Inclusive/Gender Neutral Housing
The following terms are essential to understand the gender-inclusive housing policy at Menlo College:

- Single-gender – A floor or community in a residence hall in which all beds are either all male or all female. Single-gender floors and residences exist in Howard Hall, Kratt Hall, and Michaels Hall.
• Mixed-gender – A floor or community in a residence hall for students of any gender in which male only rooms and female only rooms may co-exist. Mixed-gender floors are found in El Camino Hall, O’Brien Hall and Kratt Hall first floor.

• Mixed-gender and Gender-inclusive – A housing option in which, by mutual agreement, two students may share a double occupancy room, regardless of the students’ sex or gender. Rooms in O’Brien Hall (only) are available for gender-inclusive assignments.

Gender-inclusive housing provides safe, affirming environments and spaces for students of all gender identities. Gender-inclusive housing supports the College’s non-discrimination policy, and fully commits to the principles of social justice with respect to celebrating our differences, regardless of ethnicity, race, sexual orientation and identity, religion, or political views. The primary purpose of our residential program is to assist students with their personal growth and development while creating an exceptionally supportive learning environment.

Gender-inclusive housing also provides housing options for students who may identify as transgender, who are questioning their gender identity, or who do not wish to prescribe to gender classifications.

First-Year Students

Gender-inclusive housing is available for first year students and will be evaluated on a case by case basis. First-year students who want a gender inclusive space should contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Continuing and Transfer Students

Continuing and transfer students, regardless of gender identity, may choose to reside together in a double occupancy room on a mixed-gender floor in O’Brien Hall. Students indicate their preference to cohabitate when the roommate preference on the students’ respective housing applications indicate their request to be assigned a shared room. There is no additional requirement in order to enable a gender-inclusive room assignment. The assignment of a gender-inclusive room is subject to availability.

19.27 Service and Emotional Support Animals

Menlo College complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) in allowing use of service animals for students, employees, and visitors. Menlo complies with the Fair Housing Act in allowing students the use of approved ESAs as an accommodation.

DEFINITIONS

Service Animal

Per the ADA, a service animal is defined as: “Any dog that is individually trained to do work or perform tasks for the benefit of an individual with a disability, including a physical, sensory, psychiatric, intellectual, or other mental disability. Other species of animals, whether wild or domestic, trained or untrained, are not service animals for the purposes of this definition. The work or tasks performed by a service animal must be directly related to the owner’s disability. Examples of work or tasks include, but are not limited to, assisting individuals who are blind or have low vision with navigation and other tasks, alerting individuals who are deaf or hard of hearing to the presence of people or sounds, providing non-violent protection or rescue work, pulling a wheelchair, assisting an individual during a seizure ... retrieving items such as medicine or the telephone, providing physical support and assistance with balance and stability to individuals with mobility disabilities, and helping persons with psychiatric and neurological disabilities by preventing or interrupting impulsive or destructive behaviors. The crime-deterrent effects of an animal's presence and the provision of emotional support, well-being, comfort, or companionship do not constitute work or tasks for the purposes of this definition.”

Owner
A person with a service or emotional support animal.

Emotional Support Animal
The Fair Housing Act defines an Emotional Support Animal (ESA) as any animal that provides emotional support, well-being, or companionship that alleviates or mitigates symptoms of the disability; the animal is not individually trained. ESAs are not limited to dogs and can be other species of animal. ESAs are not considered service animals. Animals may not be brought to non-public campus spaces prior to approval being granted.

The College will make an individualized assessment of each proposed emotional support animal. Dogs must also be completely trained and housebroken. The use of “puppy pads” will not be permitted. For dogs under 12 months old that are not already living with the student at the time the ESA is requested, the Office of Student Affairs will ask for a statement that the puppy is housebroken from the breeder, adoption agency, or person providing the animal to the student. For animals already known to the student, the student can self-attest to the housebroken status of the animal.

Trainee
A service animal in training, including puppies in training, once they are old enough to remain under the control of the trainer. The animal must be accompanied by a person who is training the service animal (the trainer) and the animal must wear a leash, harness, or cape that identifies the animal as a service animal in training. Trainees are not permitted to reside in campus housing. See the Responsibilities/Requirements sections of this document regarding the registration of trainees.

QUALIFYING TO HAVE A SERVICE OR EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMAL ON CAMPUS

For an individual to qualify for having a service animal on campus:
- The student must have a disability as defined by the ADA.
- The accompanying animal must be trained to do specific tasks for the qualified individual.
- Students must register with the Office of Student Affairs if the service animal will be housed on the campus so that accommodations can be coordinated.
- Students must contact the Office of Student Affairs and the campus Disability Services Officer 60 days prior to the animal’s arrival to permit time to gather and review all necessary documentation. Information provided to these offices is confidential and specific information about the disability will not be released without the consent of the student.

For a student to qualify to have an ESA in his or her residence hall:
- The student must have a disability as defined by the ADA.
- The student must be registered with the Office of Student Affairs.
- The student must have an already established relationship with the animal.
- The ESA must be approved through the Office of Student Affairs as an official accommodation, in conjunction with other offices as needed.
• The owner must notify the Office of Student Affairs and the disability services specialist if the animal is no longer needed or is no longer residing on College property (if the animal will be replaced, the owner must submit a new request).

RESPONSIBILITIES/REQUIREMENTS – EMOTIONAL SUPPORT/SERVICE ANIMALS (ESAs) ON CAMPUS

Owner

• Is responsible to attend to and be in full control of the service animal at all times. A service animal shall have a harness, leash, or other tether.
• The arrangements and responsibilities for the care of a service animal are the sole responsibility of the owner at all times, including regular bathing and grooming, as needed.
• Is responsible for independently removing or arranging for the removal of the service animal’s waste. Waste must be disposed in a sealed bag in the designated outdoor trash area of the residence hall.
• Is responsible for complying with local and state licensing laws for animal rights and owner responsibilities. Service animals should be current with immunizations and wear a rabies vaccination tag. For more information https://www.smchealth.org/animallicensing.
• Is responsible for paying for any damage to College property caused by the animal.
• Animals must leave campus with the student anytime the student leaves overnight and/or during College breaks.
• The College may prohibit the use of service animals in certain locations due to health and safety restrictions, or places where the animal might be in danger. Restricted areas may include but are not limited to food preparation areas, research laboratories, boiler rooms, and other areas prohibited by law.
• ESAs are not permitted in the pool area.

College Community

• Must allow service animals to accompany their owners at all times and everywhere on campus where the general public (if accompanying a visitor) or other students (if accompanying a student) are allowed, except for places where there is a health, environmental, or safety hazard.
• Contact the Office of Student Affairs or disability services specialist if any questions or concerns arise relating to service animals.
• Only two questions can be asked about service animals:
  o Is the service animal required because of a disability?
  o What work or task is the dog trained to perform?
• Do not ask questions about the disability.
• Do not pet or feed a service animal.
• Do not attempt to separate the animal from the owner.
• Do not startle or tease a service animal.
• Contact the Office of Student Affairs if faculty/staff have any additional questions regarding visitors to campus who have service animals.
• Refrain from charging a fee for the service animal to reside in the residence hall, but may assess usual fees for any damages incurred.
• Report any service animals who are disruptive or any owners (or other individuals) who mistreat their service animals to the Office of Student Affairs.
Office of Student Affairs
- Is responsible for developing the necessary procedures for the College and facilitating the use of service animals by students on campus.
- Assists owners and the College community when questions or concerns arise relating to service animals on campus and seeks legal advice when necessary.

Trainees
- Animals in training and their trainers are expected to adhere to the responsibilities and requirements of trained service animals and their owners.
- Animals in training must have appropriate documentation and identification that they are in training.
- Trainees are not permitted to reside in campus housing.
- There is no comprehensive list of approved service animal training agencies. Therefore, Office of Student Affairs will determine on a case-by-case basis whether a specific program provides the proper training, supervision and oversight of trainees and their trainers.

RESPONSIBILITIES/REQUIREMENTS - EMOTIONAL SUPPORT ANIMALS ON CAMPUS

Owner
- Is responsible to attend and be in full control of the ESA at all times. The ESA shall have a harness, leash, tether or be transported in an appropriate enclosure whenever it is outside of the residence hall room where it will be housed.
- In shared living spaces, the ESA should be in an appropriate container if the owner is not in the room with the animal.
- Is responsible for following all rules related to the restrictions of animals from buildings on the campus other than their residence hall.
- Is responsible for the costs of care necessary for the ESA’s well-being. The arrangements and responsibilities for the care of an ESA are the sole responsibility of the owner at all times, including regular bathing and grooming, as needed.
- Is responsible for not leaving the ESA unattended for an unreasonable length of time.
- The ESA’s waste must be disposed in a sealed bag in the designated outdoor trash area of the residence hall.
- If the comfort animal voids on the floor or carpet anywhere inside a residence hall, the student is responsible to clean up promptly to the best of their own ability, as well as submit a work request with Facilities for the area to be properly disinfected. The student must pay all costs associated with such clean up. ESAs must be housebroken and accidents should be infrequent.
- Is responsible for complying with local and state licensing laws for animal rights and owner responsibilities. ESAs should be current with immunizations and wear a rabies vaccination tag, if appropriate.
- Animals must leave campus with the student if student leaves overnight and during all College breaks if the student leaves campus.
- Is responsible for paying for any damage to College property or pest treatment caused by the animal.
- Must abide by all applicable residential policies, including room inspections.
- Is responsible for notifying the OSA and disability services specialist if the ESA is no longer needed.
Office of Student Affairs

- Is responsible for developing the necessary procedures for the College and facilitating the use of ESAs by students on campus.
- Will contact potential roommates and suitemates to determine if other students have any concerns about potentially living with an animal.
- Assists owners and the College community when questions or concerns arise relating to ESAs on campus and seeks legal advice when necessary.
- If other residents raise concerns about the animal and attempts at mediation are unsuccessful, the owner of the ESA will be provided with an alternate living space on campus and expected to move within a reasonable period of time.

IMPORTANT CONSIDERATIONS

A service animal or ESA can be asked to leave or not allowed participation on campus if:

- The animal is found by the College to be out of control or disruptive and the animal’s owner does not take immediate and effective action to control it.
- The animal is not housebroken or kept in a cage where waste can be managed effectively.
- The animal is found to be neglected or mistreated, and prompt corrective action is not taken.
- The animal is physically ill.
- The animal is unreasonably dirty or odorous.
- A service animal attempts to enter a place on campus where the presence of a service animal causes danger to the safety of the owner or other students/member of campus.
- A service animal attempts to enter any place on campus where a service animal’s safety is compromised.

A student will receive a written warning if a valid complaint(s) is received regarding the animal. Following the first warning, the student will have the opportunity to rectify the situation and correct the behavior. If a second complaint is received, the Office of Student Affairs will conduct a further assessment of the situation and the extent of impact to the community. At this point, it is possible that the student with the animal will be asked to switch rooms if there is availability on campus. Following a third complaint or incident, the animal will need to be removed from campus. Students must identify a person who could come to campus to remove the animal if needed within a reasonable amount of time. This person must be identified during the approval process. The individualized assessment of each incident may lead to escalation of this process, up to and including removal of an animal from campus after a first complaint, depending on the severity of any incident involving any service or support animal.

Reminder: ESAs are not allowed anywhere on campus, outside of the residence hall, where animals are not normally allowed, such as office buildings, classrooms, Library, Dining Hall, Fitness Center, Gym, Pool, etc. An ESA may be removed from campus if it is found in any building on campus other than the student’s residence hall.

- All dogs over the age of four months must be vaccinated against rabies, and be licensed through the local city and town.
- Any service or ESAs who misbehave or any owners (or others) who mistreat their service or ESAs should be reported to the Office of Student Affairs.
- The College may prohibit the use of a Service Animal in certain locations due to health or safety restrictions. Restricted areas may include but are not limited to food preparation areas, laboratories or classrooms that contain research animals, areas that require protective clothing, and other areas as required by state or local laws. Exceptions to these restrictions may be requested and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Approved ESAs are permitted only in the residence halls.

Significant allergies to animal dander and other concerns

- Concerns of this nature will be addressed on a case-by-case basis. The OSA will alert potential roommates of the fact that a service or comfort animal will be present in an effort to address concerns including those related to allergies and objections or fears related to certain types of animals as early as possible in the housing assignment process. Issues or concerns that may arise during the academic year should be reported as quickly as possible.
- Owners who have concerns about any matter affecting their use of a service or emotional support animal should contact the Office of Student Affairs.

Students and employees should contact the Office of Student Affairs to discuss any special situations regarding service animals or ESAs that are not covered by this policy, as well as any exceptions to this policy that might be requested by a student or employee. All exceptions must be approved in writing by the Office of Student Affairs.

20.0 Facilities Department Shop Access

Mechanical and power equipment in the Facilities Department shops must be operated only by trained mechanics. Consequently, the Facilities area is restricted to all but authorized personnel.
